

Alholmens Kraft knows the environmental effects of its operations

- ✓ Alholmens Kraft understands the environmental effects of its operations and risk brought by operations. In risk assessment the whole life cycle is taken into account.

Effective environmental protection based on the wholeness

- ✓ Every laws, licences and other compulsory requirements filled without compromising.
- ✓ Energy is produced and raw materials are used efficiently, saving environment.
- ✓ The power plant is driven carefully and expertly.
- ✓ The safe handling of by-products and waste, as well as recycling, are an important part of the overall activity.
- ✓ In cases of disruption and accidents, environmental damage is prevented.

The attitude of staff is central to environmental protection

- ✓ By training, directing and supporting, staff are aware of the principles of environmental policy.
- ✓ The staff identifies the environmental aspects of their activities, their empowerment, and their potential and willingness to act responsibly with expertise.

Alholmens Kraft takes into account stakeholders

- ✓ Alholmens Kraft maintains an open discussion with public authorities, residents, associations and other stakeholders in its territory in order to find solutions that support good and environmental aspects.

Alholmens Kraft continuously develops its operations

- ✓ Alholmens Kraft monitors the changes and maintains operations supporting the development of the sector in its territory. Environmental considerations are taken into account in the development of activities and ensure continuous improvement through appropriate management and reporting methods.